

CSCI6506 Presentation Assessment Policy

October 25, 2005

- The presenting group are given an hour in which to present what they consider the salient theoretical and empirical findings of the assigned reading matter;
- The audience are given the remaining half hour to provide a synopsis of the presentation;
- Marks are awarded on the basis of the synopsis submitted by the audience, and the professor's qualitative judgment of the presentation;
- Participation in the presentation and audience is mandatory:)